

PEO's of Mechanical Engineering

PEO-1: Apply knowledge gained in engineering for their successful professional career in Mechanical Engineering and other related fields.

PEO-2: Be able to develop the communication skills, professional skills and ethical values that will mould them into a good human beings, responsible citizens and competent professionals.

PEO-3: Develop intellectually and technically through continued learning modern trends in Mechanical engineering.

PEO-4: Contribute to welfare of the society by analyzing the real-life problem.